

GROUPE PICHÉ

Career opportunity

Construction Site Foreman

As a leader in the wall and ceiling industry throughout Canada, Groupe Piché realize small and large-scale projets buy using both the expertise of his workforce and building relationships.

Groupe Piché is also a family story where all employees are mobilized to achieve the most audacious goals, considering both the deadlines and expectations of our clients.

As so, we are looking to fill out the position of a Construction Site Foreman who will endorse those main responsibilities:

- Supervise, coordinate and control all job site activities;
- Supervise workers and projects;
- Oversee apprenticeship training;
- Ensure quality and cost contol;
- Maintain a safe job site and ensure compliance with health and safety regulations;
- Resolve work problems, recommand measures to improve productivity;
- Plan materials and supplies needs, requisitions;
- Read blueprints, drawings;
- Establish work methods to meet work schedules;
- Prepare production and other reports;
- Maintain daily communication and reporting to the Project manager.

We value teamwork, quality, professionalim and respect. We are looking for a candidate with similar values who is enthusiastic and eager to succeed in working in a fast pace environment.

As such we are looking for a candidate who possess the following skills:

- High School or College diploma;
- Minimum of 5 years exprience as a site foreman with commercial, institutionnal and industrial construction projects in the wall and ceiling industry (mandatory);
- Posses a valid driver's licence and a vehicule;
- Posses all required certifications (first aid, scissor lift, fall arrest, WHIMS, etc.);
- Great leadership and communication skills;
- Extensive experience in scheduling, supervision, quality control and productivity;
- Exceptional problem solving, prioritizing and time management skills;
- Working knowledge of Microsoft Excel, Word and efficient computer skills.

Full time position. Start date : as soon as possible. Salary: commensurate with qualifications and experience. Workplace : Calgary and surrounding areas.

To join our team please forward a professional resume with a covering letter by October 14th, to Raphaël Rampin :

rrampin@groupepiche.ca

Groupe Piché is an equal opportunity employer. We wish to thank all applicants for their interest, however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.